

Job Posting

GALS-Denver is an organization that runs an all-girls, public charter school serving 400 students in 6th-12th grades. GALS-Denver seeks to hire highly qualified teachers whom are dedicated to supporting movement and hands-on learning into a standards-based academic environment. GALS-Denver seeks teachers whom are focused on the overall health, wellness, and success of its students.

GALS-Denver is accepting resumes for the following position(s) for the 2020-2021 school year:

- Secondary Math
- Secondary Science

Qualities Sought

For all available positions, GALS seeks candidates who demonstrate:

Mission alignment: Belief in GALS' mission of providing a college preparatory education in a supportive environment that fosters the academic mastery and personal development necessary for every young woman to become a powerful advocate for herself and leader of her community. Experience utilizing culturally congruent strategies in gender-specific and movement-based environments is a plus.

Pedagogical alignment: Belief that learning expeditions—or long-term, in-depth studies that focus on specific case studies— help students construct deep understandings and skills and prepare them to create authentic products that meet a need for real audiences. Ability to differentiate, utilize data to drive instruction, and employ constructivist instructional skills. Experience with standards-based assessment a plus.

Entrepreneurial spirit: Ability to thrive in the ambiguity and intensity of a fast-paced school environment.

Team Orientation: Ability to work collaboratively in a professional learning community by jointly planning and delivering instruction; participating fully in professional development; and engaging in an on-going exchange of ideas.

Drive for excellence: Hard-working, self-starter who takes initiative and is committed to learning and self-improvement.

Qualifications: No Child Left Behind (NCLB) compliant. Previous teaching and/or administrative experience. Strong classroom management and organizational skills. Urban school experience and experience with diverse communities preferred. Certification required.

GALS teachers will be responsible for:

- Developing detailed unit plans and daily lessons;
- Delivering engaging, inquiry-based instruction infused with movement;
- Assessing students' learning via a variety of tools and presentations of learning; and,
- Serving as academic, movement, and wellness advisors.

Application Process

Please send your resume and a personal statement explaining 1) how your interests and professional experiences align with and qualify you to be part of GALS's vision and mission; 2) the challenges you anticipate encountering working in a growing urban school. Documents should be in Word format sent via email to leah.bock@galsdenver, Attn: Leah Bock

Please be sure to indicate the position you are applying for in the subject of your email.

Resumes will be accepted until all positions are filled. Candidates invited to move to the interview round will be expected to partake in a series of simulation exercises, including teaching to the hiring committee and/or students at GALS.
