

GIRLS ATHLETIC LEADERSHIP SCHOOLS DENVER

Special Education Teacher / Learning Specialist

GALS Overview

GALS is an all-girls (inclusive), public charter middle school serving 250 students in 6th-8th grades. GALS empowers students to succeed academically, lead confidently, live boldly, and thrive physically. GALS provides an innovative and necessary educational option that incorporates health and wellness education to optimize academic achievement, focusing on identity development. The school follows standards-based practices and classes incorporate an inquiry-based approach to learning, and integration of movement in academic programming.

About the Position

Learning specialists at GALS serve as case managers for students with disabilities and instructors for students with identified skill gaps.

Responsibilities

- Plans, teaches and provides minutes to students to support grade-level outcomes
- Facilitates modifications/accommodations across settings and makes environmental adjustments so that all students make meaningful progress toward their IEP goals
- Plans and teaches intervention classes to address skill deficits using data to make instructional adjustments
- Conducts progress monitoring and tracks data across all settings
- Establishes relationships with families for all students on caseload and communicates with them regularly
- Thoughtfully and collaboratively develops IEPs, designs modifications/accommodations, and writes goals that are in the best interest of student outcomes
- Collects, organizes, and disseminates student-specific data trends
- Communicates IEP details and changes to grade level teams
- Performs other duties as assigned or requested by Heads of School or Leadership Team

Qualifications and Competencies

- Bachelor's degree (required)
- Teacher License: Special Ed Generalist (5-21) Endorsement (required), or in progress

- Belief in GALS' mission, charter schools, gender based schooling, and active pedagogy
- Experience with diverse staff, student, and community populations
- Team Orientation
- Strong Organizational Skills
- Family-centered philosophy

Salary and Application Process

Full Time exempt position, following our teacher pay scale and benefits, with starting pay based on years of relevant experience. The salary for this position is $50,840.00 annually to $96,451.37 annually.

Hours:

School hours, 8:00 am- 4:30 pm, with some flexibility, some evening events required throughout the school year. Approximately 196 Workdays per year.

How to apply:

If interested, email your resume with a cover letter to: timeri.tolnay@galsdenver.org.

EOE Statement

GALS is an equal opportunity employer. This means that GALS provides equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or any other status protected by federal, state or local law. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including but not limited to, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, leaves of absence, compensation, and training.

: